Here's Another Week
500 Acres of Floor
Swift's Good Idea
As the Pole Shifts

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE
Ast week brokers brought and sold $1,000,000 more shares than in any other week of stock exchange historical week closed with a mild selling trend. You will know tonight how this week's market is. Bears tell you "stocks are high" and some of them are.

But others say "stocks are not selling at their full value," and that is true of most stocks.

Michigan man studies values, buys what he knows he can pay for and would buy land or an auto and leaves the ambling fire and headaches to the foolish.

BOSTON, having modified an unwise policy on building, will soon have the biggest store and office block in the world.

But on terraces, on the "setback,"

the great structure in Park square will contain 20,000,000 feet of space. That is equivalent to 500 acres of floor in one building.

It seems great possibilities of increased city revenue and, facilitating for business men, it means enough space.

WILL & CO. increase from $65,000 to $100,000,000 the amount of insurance on their 40,000 employees.

Bosses and the men share the cost.

Men were flogged, lynched and and politically when the organization could not bend them to its will. Stephen-

Catholic churches were burned and pillaged, riots were incited and political officials bent to corrupt ways through orders of the Klan chiefs.

Parts Withheld

Parts of the deposition, dealing with murders and political crimes charged to the Klan, are withheld pending court action on the deposition.

The published portion, however, reveals the inner workings of the organization as it appeared to the man who once ruled it. It was called by officials who saw the deposition, the "first real unmasking of the Klan."

Stephenson told furies of victims of Klan wrath, and of perpetrators of the outrages at Mer Rouge, South Bend, Herrin,

Michigan City, Ind., April 2—A tale of crime ranging from floggings to murder and political corruption, committed or sanctioned by the Ku Klux Klan, was revealed here today by D. C.
Stephenson, once Indiana Klan dragon, and second in command of the national Klan.

Stephenson's story was told in his cell in a formal, sworn deposition, given under order of Judge W. H. S. Thomson, of the United States district court of Pennsylvania.

CHILD IS KILLED

Meets Death in Fall from Machine on Road South of Norton

Traffic accidents claimed a toll of nine lives in Ohio Sunday, when the balmy April weather attracted thousands of motorists to the highways.

Two accidents were reported near Marion.

Child Is Killed

Hope Porter, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Porter of Muskingum County, was instantly killed yesterday at Troy Chapel, near Norton, when she fell from her parents' automobile on the highway and was run over by another machine.

Mrs. R. E. Porter, 40, of Cleveland, sustained a fractured leg in an automobile collision which occurred in the Delaware-Columbus rd., south of Delaware, shortly after noon yesterday. The Porter car, driven by Mr. Porter, turned tire into the ditch when Mr. Porter was suddenly forced to apply the brakes in an attempt to avoid crashing head-on into an oncoming car as he passed another car in the road.

Others injured were two Delaware girls and two Delaware boys, occupants of the other car. Mrs. Porter and Louis Plogher, 17, Delaware, who sustained a possible skull fracture, were taken to Grant Hospital, Columbus, and the girls to Jane M. Case Hospital, Delaware.

Local Witnesses

A number of Marion persons witnessed the collision.

A list of eight fatal accidents in the state, giving names of the victims, follows:

Batavia: Vernon Story, 21, assistant postmaster at Williamsburg, auto collision Sunday night. Story said to have been driving on wrong side of road.

Lexington, Ky.: Everett Cuerter, 20,

ing.

Cincinnati: Dr. J. B. Shannon, 31, died of injuries sustained in August at Fayetteville when a tire blew out.

Middletown: Herbert Hora, 20, Germania, died of injuries sustained when switching engine struck his auto.

was drowned when the auto in which she was riding plunged down an embankment into a stream.

WILLIS'S SUCCESSOR

Donahey Not Likely To Resign
as Governor To Take Over Senate

Columbus, April 2—Atty. Cyrus Locher, Cleveland, State Director of Commerce, Democrat, today retained his position as the person most likely to be selected by Gov. Vic Donahey to succeed the late U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis as one of Ohio's representatives in the United States Senate.

Donahey, it was indicated today, is expected to announce Wednesday whom he will appoint.

Some ardent friends of the governor were advising that Donahey resign from the governorship and that Lieut.
Gov. Earl Bloom, Bowling Green, who would automatically succeed him as Ohio's chief executive, appoint Dona-hey to succeed Willis.

Indolent admirers of the governor today expressed belief that Donahey would not entertain such a proposal.

Marion Figures Prominently in Picture Taken of Ohio Visitors at White House

MARION is well represented in this photograph taken on the White House lawn in Washington last week on the occasion of the visit of eight Ohio school pupils who were winners in an essay contest held under auspices of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs.

Marion woman now a resident of Columbus, is at the rear standing directly in front of the second window from the right side of the picture.

Senator Simeon Eells of Ohio is standing at the front of the group, immediately at the left of George Schoechle.

Meet President
The photograph was taken shortly after the visitors had the honor of meeting President Coolidge.

Essays entered in the contest were on the subject of "adequately equipped homes." The Marion boy's special subject was "Modern Plumbing in the Home." A trip to Washington for the winners and their mothers was the reward.

Heading the delegation were Dr. Josaphine L. Peirce, of Lima, federation president; Mrs. Depew Head, Columbus; and Mrs. Clarence Ranch, Athens. Students who wrote winning essays were Dorothy Boynton, Elyria; Virginia Purdon, Lukewood; Polly Post, Dover; Martha McComaughay, Dayton; Marian Carroll, West Liberty; George Schoechle, Marion; James Stephenson, Portsmouth, and Edwin Ash, Forest.

30,000 Entered

More than 30,000 students of junior and senior high schools submitted essays in the contest, telling how Ohio homes could be improved through the installation of health, time and labor-saving equipment and conveniences. The campaign and contest in Ohio resulted from a nation-wide survey, conducted by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which revealed that in thousands of homes the housework is done by the men.

Bodies of Two Sisters Found in Mill Race; Tragedy Revealed
Logansport, Ind., April 2.—Theory of a suicide pact was advanced today in explanation of the death of Esther Hoover, 22, and her sister, Sena. The latter's body was recovered late yesterday in El River. The body of Esther had been found Saturday in a millrace nearby.

Both had been drowned. There were no marks of violence on either body. An autopsy revealed that Sena was soon to have become a mother.

The theory of a suicide pact was evolved after friends and neighbors recalled Esther's devotion to her younger sister. It is believed Sena confided her troubles to Esther and expressed the wish to destroy herself. Finding Sena had not the courage to die alone, it is thought Esther volunteered to go with her.

SCHOOL CAREER
During his career as an educator, Dr. Search served as superintendent of schools at Millersburg, West Liberty and Sidney, O.; Pueblo, Col.; Los Angeles, Cal., and Holyoke, Mass. In addition to the wide experience formed from his other service in school activities he is known to many persons throughout the country as a lecturer.

"This is not a very important day. Who can tell me what day it is?" the teacher inquired.

"Who's Who in America" has mentioned him prominently in its various editions, the report from Santa Barbara states.

PALM SUNDAY was fittingly observed in all of the local churches and most of those attending the services probably were fully aware of the purpose and significance of the occasion.

There was at least one exception, however, in the person of a petite little mass of about eight years who attended one of the local Sunday schools.

The teacher naturally dwelled largely upon the meaning of the Easter season and the events coming in that period.

"Next Sunday will be Easter and I want all of you to regard it as something more important than the day before."

It needn't be!

It was the remnant of what once had been a freight car, such as is used by railroad bridge gangs for quarters. There were no wheels under it now and it sat flat on the ground, repaired in many places by many varieties of patches. A few small windows, graced by several broken panes, permitted light to enter and gave the place some semblance of human habitation.

Extending out from above the one door was a small roof of nondescript boards, supported by two wobbly sticks that threatened to withdraw their support at every gust of wind.

Scattered around the door were boxes and more boxes of all sizes and in all stages of wreckage, while a few half-starved chickens pecked desolately about the door. At the rear of the place a shed, formed by extending a few boards out from the roof of the house and building one side out of boards of all sizes and kinds, leaned crazily against the house.

But extending out from the open end and slanting forth to all its girth, was the rear end of a brand new automobile sedan.

The unusual spectacle was reported several days ago from one of Marion's outlying residence sections.

THE HUNDREDS of Marion County residents who knew Senator Frank B. Willis personally and who were familiar with the general characteristics will be interested in an account written by Fred Charles, Cleveland Plain Dealer staff writer, telling of an amusing incident which happened at York, Pa., with the senator filling the leading role.

The story by Charles, appearing in yesterday's Plain Dealer, reads as follows:

"Illustrating his love of practical jokes, I recall that he once told me about an experience, when governor of Ohio, when he addressed a teachers' institute at York, Pa. There were about 4,000 teachers, gathered from eastern Pennsylvania, who heard Willis in the afternoon. That night a woman's orchestra from Baltimore was to play. But something happened. The orchestra didn't show up on time, and the local school superintendent was frantic. He hustled up Willis at the hotel where the latter was smoking a cigar waiting a train back to Columbus.

Appeals for Help

"The school superintendent appealed to Willis. The 4,000 teachers were in the hall and were growing impatient. What was to be done? Obviously Willis was expected to go back and make another speech to the teachers, which he finally consented to do.

"The teachers applauded when he mounted the stage, but he decided to play horse with them a bit, and after bowing, he stepped into the wings and peeked out at them. While he was standing there in the wings the women's orchestra marched into the hall. They had missed one train but had caught another.

"Willis described the lady conductor of the orchestra as a large, pomposo individual who took her art pretty seriously. She entered as the teachers were laughing at Willis and applauding him, and mistaking this for an ovation for herself, she marched with great dignity to the platform and bowed her acknowledgements. Catching sight of Willis in the wings, she mistook him for a stage hand and immediately began giving him orders. Willis saw the humor in the situation, peeled off his coat and played the part.

Governor Moves Piano

"Now I want these chairs arranged in a semi-circle," she said. Willis obsequiously hustled the chairs into position.

"Now put the piano right over there, she said, and Willis beat his shoulder to the piano. At last the stage was set to please her, and she bowed Willis out of the picture.

"But Willis refused to be bowed out of the picture.

"Just a moment, he said, stepping to the front of the stage. The first number will be a piano solo by Frank B. Willis.

Willis sat down at the piano and pounded out a trivial waltz he had learned to play back in his boyhood days. It made a wonderful hit, but the lady conductor was scandalized. The idea of a mere stage hand stealing her stuff, taking the limelight away from her. Then the school superintendent stepped up and introduced the governor of Ohio. The lady conductor nearly fainted. Willis thought the incident very funny and no doubt it was."

Prospect Temperance Group is entertained in honor of Member

Prospect, April 2.—Rev. Mrs. Storer, president of the local W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Edna Gandy, superintendent of the L. T. L. entertained the members of the local L. T. L. Friday afternoon at the Temperance House, in honor of Kenneth W. Lindberg, who will leave in a few weeks for Indianapolis. Rev. Storer gave a short talk on "Great Men" and a few words about "Colonel" George A. Lindbergh after which a gift of a picture of Lindbergh to the meeting was a remembrance. In a socializing contest, Mr. Windham also won a basket of flowers. Games were played and lunch served by the local girls.

The gift, he stated, was an expression of appreciation to the order of P. I. M. for its work in behalf of public welfare projects.

THREE are many good dentifrices at 50c. But do you need to pay that much in order to have lovely white teeth and a healthy mouth?

For a long time, we felt that 25c was an ample price—even for a first class paste. And so, after more than thirty years of study of mouth conditions as makers of Listerine, we created Listerine Tooth Paste at 25c for the large tube.

Now, thousands, having learned that it cleans teeth as perfectly as more costly dentifrices, use it the year 'round and apply the saving to buying things they need.

Such saving, for instance, permits the purchase of from one to three pairs of woman's hosiery during the year, a good hat for a man, radio tubes, theatre tickets, things for baby, etc.

If you are single the average saving this dentifrice affords is $3.00 a year. Think what the saving is when the family is large!

Buy a tube from your druggist. Compare it with any dentifrice you have ever known. Judge only by results. You will be delighted.

KLAN IS ASSAILED BY FORMER CHIEF

Alleged Lawless Activities of Society Related by Stephenson

Stephenson says, "The Klan would be combined in Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey, and the rest of the New England states. Illinois was slightly behind Indiana, the witness said, while Michigan was about the same as Indiana. Wisconsin had 60,000."

RECEIVED MILLIONS

The organization took in between $50 and $60 million dollars during the time in which he held office, Stephenson said.

Stephenson's deposition will be used in a suit to be heard April 9, in which five former Klansmen are seeking to have the Klan barred from Pennsylvania, on ground that it has plotted, misappropriated large sums and exerted evil influence on public officials.

Meawhile a demand for a separate inquiry into the newly-revealed Salt Creek oil deal, by which Sinclair obtained all royalty oil from the huge Wyoming public oil field, grew more insistent in the Senate. Sinclair got this oil by a deal with former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall in December, 1922, some months after having leased Teapot Dome. There were indications the Salt Creek contract might prove even more sensational than the Teapot Dome revelations. This contract, incidentally, was renewed recently by Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work for another five years, under an original option given Sinclair by Fall.

COOLIDGE ORDERS ACTION

The Department of Justice has been brought into this phase of the investigation at the direct order of President Coolidge.

The president, it was said, has instructed the department to inquire specifically into whether there is any method of breaking the contract by which Sinclair will continue to get the Salt Creek royalty oil for the next five years, and also into the methods by which the Midwest Refining Company, a subsidiary of the standard of Indiana, acquired vast leasesholds in the Salt Creek area.

The Salt Creek area is considered by oil men to be one of the greatest oil fields known in the world, both from the standpoint of quantity produced, and the quality of the oil. Salt Creek produces approximately 60,000 barrels a day, as against an average production of 3,000 barrels in Teapot Dome.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS BUCYRUS SPEAKER

Former Senator J. R. Hopley Gives Address at Luncheon Meeting

Taking as the subject of his address, "Rotary Education," Hon. James R. Hopley, of Bucyrus, former state senator, was the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Marion Rotary Club held at the Hotel Harding at noon today. The importance of developing a club interest by the appointment of each club member as a member of some committee was stressed by the speaker. The purpose of the club, the speaker said, is not merely to enjoy an hour's social intercourse each week, but to create a higher standard in the community.

A committee of one to represent the club in the campaign to be waged by the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the establishing of an airport here, was arranged for at the luncheon today. The name of the member to serve will be announced later, President Jesse H. Mason said.

A pleasing surprise at the luncheon today was the presentation of two dances by pupils of Miss Margaret Clapsaddle. The French Hat dance by four little misses, was the first number given. Those who took part were Barbara Smith, Martha Sweeney, Ruth Wilson and Edith Browarsky.

The second number was a Dutch dance by Annie Hoffman, Anita Smith, Florence Wood and Mary Cahill, presented in costume.

NEWS OF MOVIES IN CINEMA CAPITAL

For "Excess Baggage"

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
Star Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, March 31—Seems the wheels go round touches the curiosity of both the colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady.

That's why I am convinced "Excess Baggage," which shows backstage life, will make a good audience picture.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is assembling a cast to support William Haines that sounds as if it were Tiffany and Cartier combined.

Edie Nugent has been engaged to play the "Hoofers".

Polly Moran it is whispered, will play the part of the comedy mother of the "Hoofers" sweetheart.

"Excess Baggage" is a departure in a way for Billy Haines, but he tells me he does not want to be identified with one type of character, namely, the smart alec lad who starts by making everyone hate him and who ends by having them adore him.

I know any number of people who will be delighted to see Alma Rubens back in pictures. I am one of them. Some of the earlier pictures she made for the Cosmopolitan Company linger in my mind as one reason I can so express myself.

Douglas, who was getting ready for production, will not start until May 1 is in a better state of mind.

Douglas, who was getting ready for production, will not start until May 1 is in a better state of mind.

That is why it will be interesting news for most people to hear that Lila Lee, Bryant and Washburn and Armand Kalitz all command interest. The public may be fickle but still they like to feel that the actors who at one time held their attention have not passed out of the picture forever.

That is why it will be interesting news for most people to hear that Lila Lee, Bryant and Washburn and Armand Kalitz are to have the important roles in "A Little Bit of Heaven" about to be filmed by Burton King.

I suppose it's a "quicker," but quickies these days do not have the opprobrium attached to them that they had a few years ago. Every one is making quickies more or less, even the big companies, these days. Leander de Cordova is the director.

WEEK PROGRAM

Special Services Arranged by Various Churches in Kenton

Kenton, April 2—Passion Week celebrated by the Christian churches of the world in memory of the last week of Christ's life on earth, is being fittingly observed this week by Kenton churches.

The week's program opened with Palm Sunday yesterday, when for the most part, sermons depicted the triumphant entry of the Master Teacher into Jerusalem.

While services are to be held practically every night this week in many of the churches, nearly all discontinuous will join in Good Friday union services arranged by the Kenton Ministerial Association for St. John's Evangelical church. The meeting will continue between 12 and 3 o'clock, culminating in union holy communion.

Union Meeting

Kenton, April 2—William Edgar King, 73, well known resident of this city, died at a Columbus hospital after a four year illness with complications.

The deceased was born in Kenton and was widely known. He is to preach each night. During the last week the services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. A. W. Snow.

"Jesus and the Individual" is the theme of the special sermon series being delivered by Rev. E. V. Bellier in the First Presbyterian church the first four nights of Passion Week.

One of the outstanding services conducted Sunday were those in St. John's Evangelical church when 12 boys and eight girls made confession of their faith and through the rite of confirmation were admitted into the fellowship of the church. The impressive services in charge of Rev. Herbert L. Pfister.

George Zinn with the devotional and as a special speaker, Doyle C. Mohler, faculty member of Galion High School, was introduced. His address, "The Nonstop Flight Through Life," proved of unusual interest and service unusually well as an anniversary topic. In addition to the address a musical program was presented. The high school quartet, composed of Herman Head and Burnell Tennant, violins; David Tennant, cello and Misses Marie, Louise, and Mrs. John W. Miller, piano, gave several numbers. California Offers Tom Corbett For Heavyweight Title

By FRANK G. MENKE

CALIFORNIA has produced another Corbett of the heavyweight variety—Tom is his front name. And plenty of the folks have a notion that if he's not above along too fast he may add modern lustre to an already illustrious ring name. For quite a few months there have come whisperings out of the "Golden Gate" region concerning Corbett. Finally Frank Churchill, who piloted Pancho Villa to the crest, who manages Ted Morgan, a champion, and who has handled others who became great ones in pugilism, was coaxed out to San Francisco to look him over.

"I went there more to be obliging than anything else," writes Churchill. "I wasn't excited about Corbett, despite all the heady concerning him. For this is one of those hysterical eras in the game where everybody that sees any big fellow has even one solid smash or stuck one hefty blow figures he has seen a coming champion."

Rickard Selects Heeney For Gene

Promoter Expected To Have Some Time Pulling Million-Dollar House with Present Make-Up; People Not Demanding That Tom Fight

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 2—Tex Rickard already has proved that he is the greatest of all sport promoters. He now can begin proving that he is imaginative. Only a guy who can reach into a tall hat with his bare arm and come out with a ton of coal, neatly tied in baby ribbon, figures to show the board of directors may great profit on a Tunney-Heeney fight for the heavyweight championship, announcement of which was made on Saturday.

For the first time since Rickard removed his bar apron in favor of a frock coat, he is going out to try to pick up the big money with an oyster fork. He always had a steam shovel in other years. The Gans-Nelson fight couldn't make. Neither could Jeffries and Johnson. These fights promoted themselves, which was fortunate because it is doubtful whether Rickard knew what it was all about at that time.

Later, when times were better and so was Rickard, along came Jack Dempsey with a series of knockouts and the Willard-Dempsey fight was made. So was the entire fight game when Dempsey won in the early minutes of play. The Dempsey-Carpenter fight was a "natural" because of the latter's clout. Also the Dempsey-Gibb bout for the same reason. The first Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia drew a great crowd because nobody had seen Dempsey fight for three years and the Chicago affair repeated because they just had to see Dempsey again.

There's the story of Tex Rickard: Dempsey, Dempsey, Dempsey!

Can this refrain be altered to sound like Heeney, Heeney, Heeney? The writer is pleased to think not.

No Demand For Heeney

For one thing, Heeney is a "cold" challenger. There is no demand for him to fight Tunney or anybody else for that matter. They might have tossed him in there with Johnny Risko but that fight didn't figure to gross heavy money, after the apathetic series of "eliminations" that were held this winter, and so it was allowed to go by default. Now they are asking this challenger, who couldn't draw too much with a natural rival, to go in there and produce a million dollar gate with a champion whom everyone characterizes as a "kick-in" against any of them."

And it could just as well have been one of "them"—Shurkey, Delaney, Risko, Paulino, etc.—because there is no real stand-out in the lot. If Risko had been born in Kremenchik and not Cleveland, he might have received the rod, there being no doubt that Heeney's selection was influenced by the fact that he is a foreigner who might figure to inflate the occasion with an air of internationalism.

May Take Bout Away

Because of this, Rickard may be playing straight in his threat to take the Tunney-Heeney fight to England. The jolly blighters are not accustomed to pay $50 for ringside rows and altogether there would not be any Chicago or Philadelphia purses there but Rickard may have reason to figure that a ton of shillings will be worth more than an ounce of dollars.

At that, it will be the cheapest fight

Rickard has put on since that Dempsey-Carpenter meeting, in which the principals received a flat half million in guarantees. This time, Rickard reckons he can get out from under for less than $800,000. Tunney's contract calling for a guarantee of $525,000 and a percentage of receipts over a certain figure.

Yes, it sounds very easy if you say it quickly enough. Connie Mack thought it was easy, too, until he tried winning ball games in 1915 without his old stars.

Perhaps Rickard can put this one over big without a Dempsey. If he does, I shall not take off my hat to him. The hat, in fact, will not be available. I'll be eating it.

NEWARK, April 2—More than 200 Ohio sports today were enjoying their liberty because Sheriff Fouk and his Licking County deputies early Sunday morning raided a cork fight near Buckeye Lake and arrested more than 200 visitors.

proving it could be done, Ray Schalk's

Lard Luck White Sox went out yesterday and grabbed themselves a ball game. Proving further that anything is likely to happen, they made it a shutout affair. The local Texas League club was the victim. And the score was 5 to 0, and Tommy Thomas was the young pitcher who performed the miracle.

Jubilee's Pardner*A Story of Humorous Boyhood Adventure*

By JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS

YESTERDAY was Sunday, and I thought I had been up late, and I might as well go fishing again. It was a good day for getting my work done, and when I don't go to school. My mother said she didn't want to go because the last time I went with him and I got away I must of heard some things that would take a whole Sunday school to take out of my head. I had let Jubilee down. I carried you like a beautiful car. And I was mauling the damned things the bunch came strangling me, and when I pulled us apart we were under the bench in the extra room. It's one of my ears fell. It was hanging loose and one of White's ears had a shiny coming out. He gave me a crooked grin and said, "You won't hold out his hand to shake hands. So I did too.

Today was Monday and the weather man had said rain and warm so it was wet and cold, and my grandfather had been going fishing so he went and had for the weather man. And I bet we have good weather from now on.

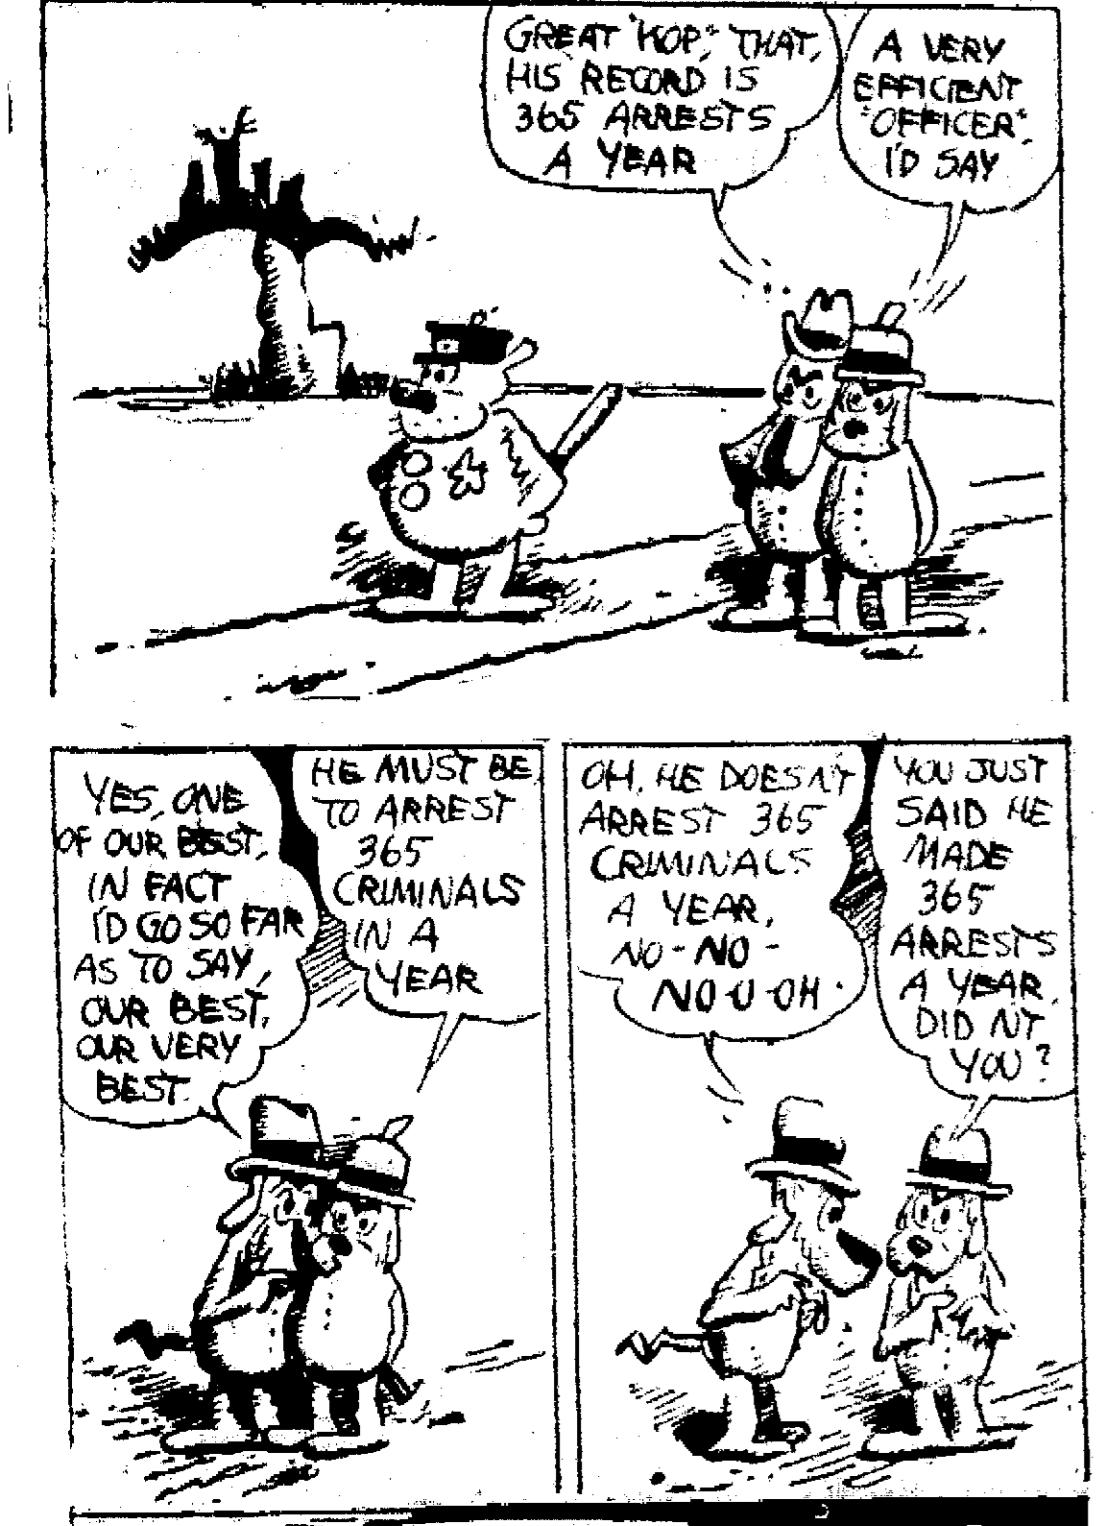

My car doesn't show that it got punched. It must be injured internally.

Heavy Loan Calling By Banks Fails To Stop Sharp Rallies

RADIO HOLDING MOST INTEREST

Money Rises to 51/2 Per Cent for First Time This Year

Markets at a Glance

New York, April 2—Railroad stocks, firm; industrial stocks, irregular; bonds, irregular; call and long bonds, steady; grain, 1/2 to 1 1/2 per cent; grain, green copper, steady; oil, steady; grain, steady; rubber, steady; grain, steady; iron, firm; foreign exchange, irregular.

Chicago, April 2—Despite heavy losses by the banking institutions, the market was recovering in the list of industrial stocks staged a number of gains in active trading in the afternoon.

Speculation's wild and uncontrolled gyrations are drawing the widest attention and the extremely sensitive grain stock in the present position. Radio opened the market at 178, down 8 points; rose to 183, dropped back to 181 and advanced to 196 covering a range of 14 points in its net gains up to the end of the day. In that period United and South General Motors, the largest market leaders moved with a gain of two of Saturday's close. General Electric moved down 1/2 point at a point.

For the first time this year call money was up 1/2 point as banks had a good volume of funds to cover the April settlements. Though the growth of the money market to date was recognized as a temporary factor, many of the active leaders in the market had a good portion of their holdings, having been repeated against attempting to gain 1/2 point in a rising market.

The first business day in the second month of the year finds most sections of American business in fairly healthy condition with a promising outlook for the rest of the year, and indications of expanding effort, if not actual movement in strategic industrial areas of the country.

Coffee Market

New York, April 2—The local raw coffee market opened barely half today. Opening quotations displayed losses of 1 to 1 1/2 points. May 1 down 17 points to 14.07; June 1 down 61; September 13.67; down 10. December 13.15, down 6.
